NEW AWESOME MIRACLES DISCOVERED IN THE QURAN

Visitors to Masjid Tucson witness a miracle that is described by Almighty God as "One of the greatest miracles" (74:30-35). On the south wall is posted a long sheet of paper (40 in/92 cm) where a very long number is written down. This long number consists of every verse in the Quran, with the number of verses in every sura preceding its verses. Thus, Sura 1 is represented by the number 71234567. Sura 2 consists of 286 verses and, therefore, is represented by the long number 286 12345.....285 286. This is done for all suras of the Quran, and all these numbers are placed next to one another to form one huge number consisting of 12692 digits, and looking like this:

712345672861234.....6123456

The very long number, which contains the number of every verse in the Quran, is a multiple of 19. It consists of 12692 digits, and this number also is a multiple of 19. Readers of S.P. are familiar with this miracle. This is a perpetual miracle that can be witnessed by anyone, at any time, in any place.

Collective Divine Inspiration of the Believers

During the annual conference of United Submitters International (Sept. 1-3, 1989), Brother Dr. Ali Fazely remarked to Brother Abdullah Arik that the Basmalahs have not been taken into consideration in writing down the long number described above. Since the Basmalahs constitute an integral part of the Quran, Ali suggested that we include them in writing the numbers of verses, and to assign a number zero to each un-numbered Basmalah. There are 2 numbered Basmalahs (1:1 & 27:30) and 112 un-numbered Basmalahs in the Quran. Sura 9 is the only sura without Basmalah.

Another Awesome Miracle

Brother Abdullah Arik wrote down the Sura number, followed by its number of verses, followed by the number of every verse. A Zero was assigned to every un-numbered Basmalah. Thus, Sura 1 is represented by the number:

1 7 1234567

Sura 2 is represented by the number:

2 286 012345.....286

This is done for all 114 suras. Sura 9 is represented by the number:

9 127 12345.....127

It is important to note that Sura 9 is the only sura that is not prefixed with a Basmalah. If we place a zero between the number of verses (127) and Verse 1, this whole phenomenon collapses. Similarly, if the false verses 128-129 are included, the phenomenon collapses.

The last sura is represented by:

114 6 0123456

The numbers representing all 114 suras are placed next to each other in order to form one very long number consisting of 13038 digits. This very long number was found to be a multiple of 19.

The Ultimate Miracle

Let us look at all verses of the Quran, and give them sequential numbers from the first verse to the last verse. Thus, the 7 verses of Sura 1, The Key, will have the same numbers (1 through 7). Then we get to the Basmalah of Sura 2; we give it the number 8. The first verse of Sura 2 is assigned number 9, and so on to the end of the Quran. The last verse is 114:6 and is assigned number 6346 (19x334). This gives us two numbering systems; the verse numbers as we know them within every sura, and the sequential numbers.

Now let us write down the sura number, followed by the number of its first verse, followed by the sequential number of that verse, and so on to the end of the Quran. Thus, we first write down the number of Sura 1, then the number of its verses with their sequential numbers:

1 11 22 33 44 55 66 77

Then we write down the number of the second sura, followed by Zero for the Basmalah of Sura 2, followed by this Basmalah's sequential number which is 8, then 1 for the first verse of Sura 2, then the sequential number of Verse 2:1, and so on:

2 08 19 210 311.....286 294

The number representing the first two suras, therefore, looks like this:

1 11 22 33 44 55 66 77 2 08 19.....286 294

The number representing the last sura begins with the sura number (114), followed by the number assigned to every un-numbered Basmalah (0), followed by the sequential number of that Basmalah (6340), followed by 1, then 6341, then 2, then 6342, then 3, then 6343, then 4, then 6344, then 5, then 6345, then the last verse (6), then 6346:

114 0 6340 1 6341.....6 6346

The resulting very long number:

[1] consists of 12806 numbers (19x674).
[2] consists of 37088 digits (19x1952), &
[3] the very long number itself is also a multiple of 19

This miraculous phenomenon adds even more power to the great miracle of the Quran, and more proof that 9:128-130 never belonged in the Quran.

ALLAHU AKBAR.

Mohamedans Insist Upon Going to Hell

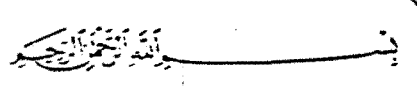

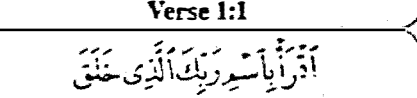

A renowned Muslim scholar has "refuted" the overwhelmingly proven fact that I am God's Messenger of the Covenant on the basis that the Basmalah (Verse 1:1) does not consist of 19 letters, and that the Arabic name of the prophet Muhammad consists of 5 letters. My question to him and to all Mohamedans is: If I prove to you, incontrovertibly, that Basmalah does consist of 19 letters, and that Muhammad's name consists of 4 letters, will you accept the proven truth that I am God's messenger?

I just received an impolite letter from Dr. Assad Busool, Professor of Islamic Studies at Chicago's Islamic College, supposedly refuting my messengership. Dr. Busool says that since "the Basmalah consists of 22 letters, and the Arabic word "Mohamed محمد" consists of 5 letters, the proof of my messengership is collapsed!!"

Thus, while Almighty God is revealing ever more powerful and ever more awesome miracles in the Quran, as reported in this bulletin, the Mohamedan scholars are still stuck in the most basic issues. They are still trying to count the number of letters in the first verse of the Quran. God is strengthening His great miracle (74:30-35), but the Mohamedans continue to reject it. They will have no excuse whatsoever for going to Hell.

Since the Mohamedan scholars readily confess that they do not know the number of letters in the first verse of the Quran, how can anyone depend on them to explain the rest of the Quran? In fact, they are stuck in the first letter of Basmalah. Dr. Busool counts the letters of "BISM بِسْمِ" as 4, not 3. My question to him is: How many letters do you see in "BISM بِسْمِ" of 1:1 and how many do you see in "BISM بِاسْمِ" of 96:1??!!

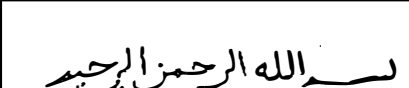

The difference between "BISM" of 1:1 and "BISM" of 96:1 is so obvious, any pupil in First Grade can tell you that "BISM" of 1:1 consists of 3 letters, while "BISM" of 96:1 consists of 4 letters. I am producing here 1:1 and 96:1 as shown in the latest King Fahd printing:

 Verse 1:1
 Verse 96:1

God Blocks Out the Idol Worshipers

According to Dr. Busool, the Basmalah consists of 22 letters, not 19. Therefore, I will simply show you the Basmalah according to Dr. Busool, and the Basmalah as written in the Quran.

 This is the Basmalah according to Dr. Busool.

 This is the Basmalah as we see it in the Quran.
--

Is there any doubt that Dr. Busool is trying very hard to go to Hell? Indeed, one of the reasons for our being here is to show that God never puts anyone in Hell; people insist on going to Hell (see 11:101, 16:118, 43:76). God has sent a clear message, with clear proofs, and has supported His messenger with awesome miracles, but the humans insist on going to Hell.

Busool's Ultimate Lie

I have presented literally hundreds of irrefutable Quranic and mathematical proofs that I am God's Messenger of the Covenant prophesied in 3:81 (see Appendix 2 of my new translation of the Quran). Among the proofs is the fact that the root word of my name is mentioned in the Quran 19 times (INDEX TO THE WORDS OF QURAN, First Printing, Page 320). Also, when we add the gematrical value of the three messengers of Islam, Abraham, Mohamed, and Rashad, as written in the Quran (21:51, 47:2, & 40:38), the total comes to 855, 19x45. Dr. Busool refutes this evidence on the basis that Mohamed's name consists of 5 letters, not 4!!! This makes the total value according to him 895, which is not a multiple of 19!!!

 The word "Muhammad" as proposed by Dr. Busool.

 The word "Muhammad" as recognized by all Muslims.
--

Any child in grade school knows that the Prophet's name consists of 4 letters. But the Quranic truth must be manifested: the Quran states in 18:56 that the disbelievers argue against the truth using falsehood and lies.

The issue is very simple

- [1] The Quran informs us in 3:81 that God's Messenger of the Covenant will come after all the prophets have delivered all the scriptures.
- [2] As confirmed by 33:7, Mohamed was one of the prophets who pledged to believe in and support God's Messenger of the Covenant.
- [3] Anyone who rejects these Quranic truths is no longer a Muslim (3:82-85).
- [4] The Quran spells out the name of God's Messenger of the Covenant as "Rashad Khalifa" (see past issues of SP).
- [5] The Quranic and mathematical evidence that Rashad Khalifa is God's Messenger of the Covenant is not subtle at all; it is utterly incontrovertible.

Why do the Muslim scholars resort to such glaring falsehood and lies? They want to ensure that their ultimate destiny is Hell.

Deceiving Themselves:

HYPOCRITES PROCLAIM: "We Do Not Need A Messenger"

By definition, the hypocrites say with their lips that they are believers. However, their actions reflect their disbelief. To utter what is not in one's heart is a most despised matter in the sight of God (61:3). One of their most common utterances is: "We do not need a messenger. We can worship God alone, and follow the Quran alone, without any need for a messenger from God." They thus rebel against God's system. Sending messengers is God's system for a good number of reasons.

God sends His messengers to rescue those who believe and work righteousness, as we see in 65:11: "a messenger who recites God's revelations, in order to lead those who believe and lead a righteous life from the darkness to the light." Note that this verse talks about "those who believe and lead a righteous life." They are in darkness, until God's messenger comes and "leads them out of darkness." Note also the word "recites." The book itself, the Quran, cannot "recite" God's revelations. While the messenger is alive, the book comes to life and leads the believers out of darkness.

The Quran, without the Messenger, Misleads the Wicked

See 2:26, 14:27, 17:41, 17:82. In 3:7, we see that "those well founded in knowledge are needed to explain certain aspects of the Quran. The messenger who receives new information and revelations from God is certainly "well founded in knowledge." Otherwise, why didn't God just send a physical book down from the sky, without any messengers? Obviously, those who say that they do not need God's messenger; that they can make it to Heaven on their own, blaspheme against God. For they defy God's system.

God's system is very clearly stated in 18:17: "Whomever God wills to send astray, you will not find for him a guiding teacher." What makes this system particularly relevant to our generation is that the root word for the "guiding teacher" is "Rashada."

God is telling us that His system calls for guiding the believers through a "guiding teacher." So what do the hypocrites say? They rebel against God's system, and reject God's appointed teacher. "We can make it on our own," they think.

Once again, here is God's system as stated in 18:17:

Whomever God wills to send astray, you will not find for him a guiding teacher.

Only the believers can enjoy and uphold God's system (see 9:24).

Divine Proclamation Through Gabriel:

Like the time of Noah: Only those who stand with God's messenger will be saved.

If you look at Sura 7, Verse 64 says: "They rejected him (Noah). Consequently, we saved him and those who stood by him in the ark, and we drowned those who rejected our revelations, for they were blinded people." Verse 72 says: "We then saved him (Hood) and those who stood by him, by mercy from us. And we annihilated those who rejected our revelations, and refused to believe." Verses 78-79 say: "Consequently, the quake annihilated them, leaving them dead in their homes. He (Saaleh) turned away from them, saying, 'O my people, I have delivered my Lord's message to you, and advised you, but you do not like those who advise you.'" Verse 83 says, "Consequently, we saved him (Lot) and his people, except his wife; she was with the doomed." Verses 91-92 say, "The quake annihilated them, leaving them dead in their homes. Those who rejected Shu'aib vanished, as if they never existed. Those who rejected Shu'aib were the losers." Verse 101 says, "We narrate to you the history of the doomed communities:

their messengers went to them with clear proofs, but they were not to believe in what they had already rejected. God thus seals the hearts of the disbelievers."

We see the same lessons in 26:105-190. The angel Gabriel has conveyed to me God's plan: those who refuse to stand by His Messenger of the Covenant will be utterly destroyed. I was told specifically that it will be like the time of Noah: Only those who stand by God's messenger will be saved. Allahu Akbar.

IN BRIEF

Edip Yuksel

Challenge to Ass 'Ad Busool

I was truly surprised at the unbelievable stupidity of Dr. Ass 'Ad Busool of Chicago's Islamic College. In his so-called refutation of the Quran's mathematical miracle and Rashad's proven messengership, Dr. Busool claims that the Basmalah consists of 22 letters, and that the Prophet's name (Muhammad) consists of 5 letters. What is wrong with this guy? The strange thing is that in his letter, Dr. Busool cites Al-Qurtubi, one of his biggest idols, declaring that Basmalah consists of 19 letters!!! Dr. Busool was so blinded by his lies that this important confession slipped by him. At the bottom of this page, you see a photocopy of Busool's slip-of-the-truth, from Page 4 of his letter.

On the same page, Busool shamelessly quotes Ibn Kathir, knowing that Ibn Kathir declared that the earth is carried on the 40,000 horns of a giant bull!!!

Finally, I would like to ask Ass 'Ad: Are you aware of Fakhruddin Razi's exegesis on Basmalah? This big idol of yours informs you that Basmalah consists of 19 letters. Do you suppose Razi didn't know how to count? Do you think Razi was a follower of Rashad Khalifa?

I challenge Busool to a public debate.

Mehdi: Satanic Diversion

There is absolutely no way around the Quran's prophecy in 3:81 that a messenger will come after Muhammad. From 3:81 and 33:7, we learn that God's Messenger of the Covenant is not Muhammad. Why then don't we see any trace of this messenger in the literature? How did such an important prophecy disappear? Since it is impossible for Satan to remove the Quranic prophecy, the devil resorted to a clever diversionary tactic. Through Hadith and other Mohamedan literature, Satan created a number of figures such as the Mehdi, Imam Zaman, Jesus, etc. to replace God's Messenger of the Covenant. Satan even reversed the definitions of "Nabi" and "Rasool." Thus, after the Prophet's death, the people started to wait for the expected Mehdi, Jesus, the 12th Imam, instead of God's Messenger of the Covenant.

Satan duped millions of Muslims into waiting for an imaginary, non-existent figure. There are numerous clues exposing the gradual development of this Satanic plot. For example, the early narrations called the expected savior "Mehdi Rasool." As a second step, Satan removed the word "Rasool" and called the expected figure just "Mehdi."

In a significant Hadith, the Prophet allegedly prophesies that Al-Khulafa' Al-Rashedoon will come after him, and their eras will be marked by peace, justice, and prosperity. Ironically "Al-Khulafa' Al-Rashedoon" is the plural of Khalifa Rashed. Is it not significant that this name is so close to the name of God's Messenger of the Covenant?

Techno-Religious Problems

A few years ago, the leading Mohamedan scholars met in Pakistan to discuss Islamic issues. One of the issues they discussed was the cutting off of the thief's hand. The problem some of them raised was that in this age of advanced medical technology the thief's hand can be re-attached. What do we do now?!!! The mullas debated at length: should we allow such a surgery? Should we give the thief his hand back?!!!

Another issue the mullas discussed: Should we allow a menstruating woman to touch the computer, if the Quran is written on the computer's disc?!

Bukhari: No. 1 Enemy

While the Quran teaches that the Prophet was kind (3:159), Bukhari narrates hundreds of Hadiths showing that the Prophet was vicious and mean. For example, he ordered the killing of women and children "because they belonged with their disbelieving husbands and fathers!!!" (Bukhari's Jihad #146, Abu Dawud 113).

Remember

Just as it was in the time of Noah; only those who stand with God's Messenger of the Covenant will be saved.

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the days of the Son of Man. They ate and drank right up to the day Noah entered the ark--and when the flood came, it destroyed them all.

Luke 17:22-36.

You can't make it on your own (4:115).

Thanks

Our heartfelt thanks to all our brothers and sisters who participated in the 4th Conference of United Submitters Int'l, and made our wedding ceremony unforgettable. [Edip & Aameh]

Al-Basmalah is nineteen letters according to the number of the angels of the people of Hell, who say all the time; 'BISMILLAH ar-RahMAN ar-RahIM" which is the source of their power... Ibn 'Atiyah commented on this story: This is of the witticism of Tafsir (interpretation) and not of the solid knowledge. (al-Qurtubi, al-Qalam, Cairo, 1980, vol. 1, p.92).
